

Dave Dorrell: DJ Bio

Grammy® nominated DJ and Producer Dave Dorrell is one of the architects of contemporary dance music culture. As a member of M/A/R/R/S, whose international number 1 record, Pump Up The Volume, listed by Rolling Stone magazine in the US as one of the most influential records of the 20th century, he mixed electronic music into the public psyche. As a producer and remixer – working with bands as diverse as U2, De La Soul, Janet Jackson and P.I.L. – he pushed the boundaries of the genre. His devil-may-care approach to DJ-ing has seen him play around the world, from Tokyo to Paris, London to Berlin - ripping up parties in the best clubs, festivals and at exclusive events from Bestival's Main Stage to the Serpentine Gallery's Summer Picnic. !
